ORDER

Simla-4, the 27th September, 1972

No. 7-G-207/69-Panch(C).—Whereas a complaint has been received against Shri Devi Singh Pradhan, Gram Panchayat Bijhari, Development Block Bijhari, Tehsil Hamirpur, District Hamirpur, Himachal Pradesh regarding the misuse of his powers in the allotment of Shamlat Land.

And whereas an enquiry is contemplated under section 54(1) of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayati Raj Act, 1968 (Act No. 19 of 1970) against the said Pradhan,

Now, therefore, the Government in terms of the provisions of section 54(1) of the Act, hereby order an enquiry against the said Pradhan. The Deputy Commissioner, Hamirpur or his nominee will conduct the enquiry.

In case the enquiry is not conducted by the Deputy Commissioner himself his nominee will submit the report through the former.

NOTIFICATIONS

Simla-4, the 28th September, 1972

No. 36-25/71-Panch.—In partial modification to this Department notification No. 7-1/69-PNT-Sectt(iii), dated the 11th December, 1970, the Governor, Himachal Pradesh in exercise of the powers conferred upon him, under section 4 and 5 of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayati Raj Act, 1968 (Act No. 19 of 1970) is pleased to re-organise and establish Gram Sabha, Har and Barhun, in Kangra district with their territorial jurisdiction as indicated against each:—

Simla-4, the 24th October, 1972

No. 6-1/69-Pnt. (Sectt).—In exercise of the powers vested in him under section 60 of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayati Raj Act, 1968 (Act No. 19 of 1970), the Governor, Himachal Pradesh is pleased to propose to make the following amendments in the Himachal Pradesh Gram Panchayat Rules, 1971 issued vide this department notification of even number, dated the 30th June, 1971 and the same are hereby published in the Official Gazette for the information of the general public and a notice is hereby given that these draft amendments will be taken into consideration after fifteen days from the date of publication in the Official Gazette.—

If any person affected thereby, desires to take any objection or has any suggestion to make regarding these draft amendments, he can send the same to the Director of Panchayati Raj, Himachal Pradesh Simla-4, before the expiry of the above period. The objections or suggestions, if any, so received, will be taken into consideration before finalising these draft amendments.

DRAFT AMENDMENTS

1. After Rule 19, add the following Rules as Rule 19A, 19B and 19C.

Rule 19A. Co-option—Section 9 (1) of the Act.—(1) If no woman or scheduled caste member is elected as a Panch of any Gram Panchayat, a meeting of the Gram Panchayat shall be called by the Pradhan or Up-Pradhan in the absence of former, for the purpose of co-option of such number of woman and scheduled caste Panches as are required to be co-opted under sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Act and in such a meeting, the Gram Panchayat shall co-opt woman and scheduled caste Panches by majority vote which shall be recorded by show of hands:

Provided that no person shall be co-opted as Panch unless he is qualified to be elected as a Panch of the Gram Panchayat.

(2) The proceedings of the meeting of the Gram Panchayat in which the co-option is held shall be recorded in the proceeding book of the Panchayat and a copy thereof shall be sent to the Deputy Commissioner who will notify the names of co-opted Panches as soon as he receives the proceedings of the meeting of the Panchayat.

(3) Before entering upon the duties of their office, the co-opted Panches shall take an oath as required under sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Act which shall be administered by the Pradhan or in his absence by the Up-Pradhan in the meeting which such Panch attends for the first time.

(4) The proceedings of co-option shall not be taken up unless two third majority of the elected Panches exist in the meeting.

19B. Resignation—Section 10 (2) of the Act.—The Deputy Commissioner will be the competent authority to accept the resignation of an elected or co-opted Panch. The resignation, if accepted, shall be deemed to have been accepted from the date of the order by the Deputy Commissioner in this behalf.

19C. Removal—Section 10 (3) of the Act.—Subject to the conditions specified in sub-section (3) of section 10 of the Act, the Gram Panchayat may remove the Pradhan or Up-Pradhan from his office by a majority vote without giving him any notice of intention to move such vote of non-confidence. If the non-confidence motion is brought against the Pradhan, the Up-Pradhan will preside over the meeting in which the non-confidence motion is to be discussed and if the non-confidence motion is against the Up-Pradhan, the Pradhan will preside over such a meeting. If the non-confidence motion is against the Pradhan and Up-Pradhan both, the Panches present will choose from amongst themselves one Panch to preside over the meeting. The person presiding shall record the proceedings of the meeting in the proceeding book of the Panchayat. Copies of the proceedings shall be sent to the Block Development Officer and the Deputy Commissioner concerned if the motion succeeds.

LABOUR DEPARTMENT NOTIFICATION

Simla-2, the 3rd August, 1972

No. 10-17/71-SI-Vol. II.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 15, read with clause (b) of section 2 of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946 (20 of 1946), the Governor of Himachal Pradesh hereby proposes to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the said Act and the same are hereby published for the information of the general public and of persons likely to be effected thereby, as required by sub-section (1) of section 15 of the said Act and notice is hereby given that the said draft rules will be taken into consideration, after expiry of ninety days from their publication in the Rajpatra, Himachal Pradesh.

Objections or suggestion, if any, may be addressed to the Labour Commissioner, Government of Himachal Pradesh, Simla-4. Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any persons with respect to the said draft rules before the period specified above will be considered by the Himachal Pradesh Government.

DRAFT RULES

1. (1) These rules may be called the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Himachal Pradesh Rules, 1972.
- (2) They shall apply to all industrial establishments in Himachal Pradesh in respect of which the Himachal Pradesh Government is the appropriate Government.
2. In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:—
 - (a) 'Act' means the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946 (XX of 1946).
 - (b) 'Form' means a form set out in Schedule II appended to these rules.
3. The model standing orders for the purposes of the Act shall be those set out in Schedule I appended to these rules.
4. An application for certification of standing orders shall be made in Form I.
5. The prescribed particulars of workmen for the purposes of sub-section (3) of section 3 of the Act shall be—

- (1) total number employed,
- (2) number of permanent workmen,
- (3) number of temporary workmen,
- (4) number of casual workmen,
- (5) number of badlies or substitutes,
- (6) number of probationers,
- (7) number of apprentices,
- (8) name of the trade union or trade unions, if any,

to which the workmen belong,

(9) remarks.

6. As soon as may be after he receives an application under rule 4 in respect of an industrial establishment, the certifying officer shall—

- (a) where there is a trade union of the workmen, forward a copy of the draft standing orders to the trade union together with a notice in Form II;
- (b) where there is no such trade union, call a meeting of the workmen to elect three representatives, to whom he shall, upon their election, forward a copy of the draft standing orders together with a notice in Form II.

7. Standing orders certified in pursuance of sub-section (3) of section 5 or sub-section (2) of section 6 of the Act shall be authenticated by the signature and seal of office of the certifying officer or the appellate authority, as the case may be, and shall be forwarded by such officer or authority within a week of authentication by registered letter post to the employer and to the trade union, or, as the case may be, the representatives of the workmen elected in pursuance of rule 6.

8. (1) Any person desiring to prefer an appeal in pursuance of sub-section (1) of section 6 of the Act shall draw up a memorandum of appeal setting out the grounds of appeal and forward it in quadruplicate to the appellate authority accompanied by a certified copy of the standing orders, amendments or modifications, as the case may be.

(2) The appellate authority shall, after giving the appellant an opportunity of being heard, confirm the standing orders, amendments or modifications as certified by the certifying officer unless it considers that there are reasons for giving the other parties to the proceedings a hearing before a final decision is made in the appeal.

(3) Where the appellate authority does not confirm the standing orders, amendments or modifications, it shall fix a date for the hearing of the appeal and direct notice thereof to be given:—

- (a) where the appeal is filed by the employer or a worker, to trade unions of the workmen of the industrial establishments, and where there are no such trade unions to the representatives of workmen elect under clause (b) of rule 6, or as the case may be, to the employer;
- (b) where the appeal is filed by a trade union, to the employer and all other trade unions of the workmen of the industrial establishment;
- (c) where the appeal is filed by the representatives of the workmen, to the employer and any other workmen whom the appellate authority joins as a party to the appeal.
- (4) The appellant shall furnish each of the respondents with a copy of the memorandum of appeal.
- (5) The appellate authority may at any stage call for any evidence it considers necessary for the disposal of the appeal.
- (6) On the date fixed under sub-rule (3) for the hearing of the appeal, the appellate authority shall take such evidence as it may have called for or consider to be relevant.

9. The register required to be maintained by section 8 of the Act, shall be in Form III and shall be properly bound, and the certifying officer shall furnish a copy of standing orders approved for an industrial establishment to any person applying therefor on payment calculated at the following rates per copy:—

- (i) for the first two hundred words or less—seventy five paise;
 - (ii) for every additional one hundred words or fraction thereof—thirty-seven paise:
- Provided that, where the said standing orders exceeds five pages, the approximate number of words per page shall be taken as the basis for calculating the total number of words to the nearest hundred, for the purpose of assessing the copying fee.

10. The Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Central Rules, 1946, as in force in the areas, which comprised Himachal Pradesh immediately before the 1st November, 1966 and Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Punjab Rules, 1949 as in force in the territories added to Himachal Pradesh under section 5 of the Punjab Re-organisation Act, 1966 (Central Act 31 of 1966) are hereby repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not effect;

- (a) the previous operation of the said rules or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or
- (b) any right, a privilege, obligation or liability, acquired, accrued or incurred under the said rules;
- (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment in respect of any offence committed against the said rules;
- (d) any investigation, legal proceedings or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and
- (e) any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if these rules had not been framed.

SCHEDULE I MODEL STANDING ORDERS

1. These orders shall come into force on.....
2. Classification of Workmen—(a) Workmen shall be classified as—

- (1) permanent,
- (2) probationers,
- (3) badlies,
- (4) temporary,
- (5) casual,
- (6) apprentices.

- (b) A “permanent” workman is a workman who has been engaged on a permanent basis and includes any person who has satisfactorily completed a probationary period of three months in the same or another occupation in the industrial establishment including breaks due to sickness, accident, leave, lock-out, strike (not being an illegal strike) or involuntary closure of the establishment.
- (c) A “probationer” is a workman who is provisionally employed to fill a permanent vacancy in a post and has not completed three months’ service therein. If a permanent employee is employed as a probationer in a new post he may, at any time during the probationary period of three months, be reverted to his previous permanent post.
- (d) A “badli” is a workman who is appointed in the post of a permanent workman or probationer who is temporarily absent.
- (e) A “temporary” workman is a workman who has been engaged for work which is of an essentially temporary nature likely to be finished within a limited period.
- (f) A “casual” workman is a workman whose employment is of a casual nature.
- (g) An “apprentice” is a learner who is paid an allowance during the period of his training.

3. Tickets.—(1) Every workman shall be given a permanent ticket unless he is a probationer, badli, temporary, casual worker or apprentice.

(2) Every permanent workman shall be provided with a departmental ticket showing his number, and shall, on being required to do so, show it to any person authorised by the manager to inspect it.

(3) Every badli shall be provided with the badli card, on which shall be entered the days on which he has worked in the establishment, and which shall be surrendered if he obtains permanent employment.

(4) Every temporary workman shall be provided with a "temporary" ticket which he shall surrender on his discharge.

(5) Every casual worker shall be provided with a casual card, on which shall be entered the days on which he has worked in the establishment.

(6) Every apprentice shall be provided with an 'apprentice' card which shall be surrendered if he obtains permanent employment.

4. Publication of working time.—The periods and hours of work for all classes of workers in each shift shall be exhibited in English and in Hindi on notice boards maintained at or near the main entrance of the establishment and at time-keeper's office, if any.

5. Publication of holidays and pay days.—Notices specifying (a) the days observed by the establishment as holidays, and (b) pay days shall be posted on the said notice boards.

6. Publication of wage rates.—Notices specifying the rates or wages payable to all classes of workmen and for all classes of work shall be displayed on the said notice boards.

7. Shift Working.—More than one shift may be worked in a department or departments or any section of a department of the establishment at the discretion of the employer. If more than one shift is worked, the workmen shall be liable to be transferred from one shift to another. No shift working shall be discontinued without two months' notice being given in writing to the workmen prior to such discontinuance:

Provided that no such notice shall be necessary if the closing of the shift is under an agreement with the workmen affected. If as a result of the discontinuance of the shift working, any workmen are to be retrenched, such retrenchment shall be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) and the rules made thereunder. If shift working is re-started, the workmen shall be given notice and re-employed in accordance with the provisions of the said Act and the said rules.

8. Notice of changes in shift working.—Any notice of discontinuance or of restarting of a shift working required by standing order 7 shall be in the form appended to these orders and shall be served in the following manner, namely:

The notice shall be displayed conspicuously by the employer on a notice board at the main entrance to the establishment and in the Manager's office:

Provided that where any registered trade union of workmen exists, a copy of the notice shall also be served by registered post on the Secretary of such union.

9. Attendance and late coming.—All workmen shall be at work at the establishment at the time fixed and notified under paragraph 4. Workmen attending late will be liable to the deductions provided for in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Act No. 4 of 1936).

10. Leave.—(1) Holidays with pay will be allowed as provided for in Chapter IV-A of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948) and other holidays in accordance with law, contract, custom and usage.

(2) A workman who desires to obtain leave of absence shall apply to the Manager, who shall issue orders on the application within a week of its submission or two days prior to the commencement of the leave applied for, whichever is earlier, provided that if the leave applied for is to commence on the date of the application or within three days thereof, the order shall be given on the same day. If the leave asked for is granted, a leave pass shall be issued to the worker. If the leave is refused or postponed, the fact of such refusal or postponement and the reasons therefor shall be recorded in writing in a register to be maintained for the purpose, and if the worker so desires, a copy of the entry in the register shall be supplied to him. If the workman after proceeding on leave desires an extension thereof, he shall apply to the Manager who shall send a written reply either granting or refusing extension of leave to the workman if his address is available and if such reply is likely to reach him before the expiry of the leave originally granted to him.

(3) If the workman remains absent beyond the period of leave originally granted or subsequently extended, he shall lose his lien on his appointment unless he (a) returns within 8 days of the expiry of the leave and (b) explains to the satisfaction of the Manager his inability to return before the expiry of his leave. In case the workman loses his lien on his appointment, he shall be entitled to be kept in the badli list.

11. Casual and sick leave.—(1) Every workman shall be allowed casual and sick leave in accordance with the Himachal Pradesh Industrial Establishment (National and Festival Holidays and Casual and Sick Leave) Act (Act No. 7 of 1970) and rules framed thereunder.

12. National/festival holidays.—Every workman shall be allowed National and festival holidays in accordance with the Himachal Pradesh Industrial Establishments (National and Festival Holidays and Casual and Sick Leave) Act (Act No. 7 of 1970) and rules framed thereunder.

13. Payment of Wages.—(1) Any wages, due to the workmen but not paid on the usual pay day on account of their being unclaimed, shall be paid by the employer on an unclaimed wage pay day in each week, which shall be notified on the notice board as aforesaid.

(2) All workmen will be paid wages on a working day before the expiry of the seventh or the tenth day after the last day of the wage period in respect of which the wages are payable, according as the total number of workmen employed in the establishment does not or does exceed one thousand.

14. Stoppage of work.—(1) The employer may, at any time in the event of fire, catastrophe, break down of machinery or stoppage of power supply, epidemics, civil commotion or other cause beyond his control, stop any section or sections of the establishment, wholly or partially for any period or periods without notice.

(2) In the event of such stoppage during working hours, the workmen affected shall be notified by notices put upon the notice-board in the department concerned, or at the office of the Manager, as soon as practicable, when work will be resumed and whether they are to remain or leave their place of work. The workmen shall not ordinarily be required to remain for more than two hours after the commencement of the stoppage. If the period of detention does not exceed one hour the workmen so detained shall not be paid for the period of detention. If the period of detention exceeds one hour, the workmen so detained shall be entitled to receive wages for the whole of the time during which they are detained as a result of the stoppage. In the case of piece rate workers, the average daily earning for the previous month shall be taken to be the daily wage. No other compensation will be admissible in case of such stoppage. Whenever practicable, reasonable notice shall be given of resumption of normal work.

(3) In case where workmen are laid-off for short periods on account of failure of plant or a temporary curtailment of production, the period of un-employment shall be treated as compulsory leave either with or without pay, as the case may be. When, however, workmen have to be laid-off for an indefinitely long period, their services may be terminated after giving them due notice or pay in lieu thereof.

(4) The employer may in the event of a strike affecting either wholly or partially any section or department of the establishment close down neither wholly or partially such section or department and any other section or department affected by such closing down. The fact of such closure shall be notified by notices put on the notice-board in the section or department concerned and in the time-keeper's office, if any, as soon as practicable. The workmen concerned shall also be notified by a general notice, prior to resumption of work, as to when work will be resumed.

15. Termination of employment.—(1) For terminating employment of a permanent workman, notice in writing shall be given either by the employer or the workman one month's notice in the case of monthly-rated workmen and two week's notice in the case of other workmen. One month's or two weeks' pay, as the case may be, may be paid in lieu of notice.

(2) No temporary workman whether monthly-rated, weekly-rated or piece-rated and no probationer, badli or casual worker entitled to any notice or pay in lieu thereof if his services are terminated, but the services of a temporary workman shall not be terminated as a punishment unless he has been given an opportunity of explaining the charges of misconduct alleged against him in the manner prescribed in paragraph 14.

(3) Where the employment of any workman is terminated, the wages earned by him and other dues, if any, shall be paid before the expiry of the second working day from the day on which his employment is terminated.

16. Disciplinary action for misconduct.—(1) A workman may be fined up to two per cent of his wages in a month for the following acts and omissions, namely:

Note.—Specify the acts and omissions which the employer may notify with the previous approval. of the prescribed authority in pursuance of section 8 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (4 of 1936).

(2) A workman may be suspended for a period not exceeding four days at a time, or dismissed without notice or any compensation in lieu of notice, if he is found to be guilty of misconduct.

(3) The following acts and omissions shall be treated as misconduct:

- (a) willful insubordinate of disobedience, whether alone or in combination with others, to any lawful and reasonable order of a superior;
- (b) theft, fraud or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property;
- (c) willful damage to or loss of employer's goods or property;
- (d) taking or giving bribes or any illegal gratification;

(e) habitual absence without leave or absence without leave for more than 10 days;

(f) habitual late attendance;

(g) habitual breach of any law applicable to the establishment;

(h) riotous or disorderly behaviour during working hours at the establishment or any act subversive of discipline;

(i) habitual negligence or neglect of work;

(j) frequent repetition of any act or omission for which a fine may be imposed to a maximum of 2 per cent, of the wages in a month;

(k) striking work or inciting others to strike work in contravention of the provisions of any law or rule having the force of law.

(4) (a) Where a disciplinary proceeding against a workman is contemplated or is pending or where criminal proceedings against him in respect of any offence are under investigation or trial and the employer is satisfied that it is necessary or desirable to place the workman under suspension, he may, by order in writing suspend him with effect from such date as may be specified in the order. A statement setting out in detail the reasons for such suspension shall be supplied to the workman within a week from the date of suspension.

(b) A workman who is placed under suspension under clause (a) shall, during the period of such suspension, be paid a subsistence allowance at the following rates, namely:—

(i) Where the enquiry contemplated or pending is departmental the subsistence allowance shall, for the first ninety days from the date of suspension be equal to one-half of the basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensation allowances to which the workman would have been entitled if he were on leave with wages. If the departmental enquiry gets prolonged and the workman continues to be under suspension for a period exceeding ninety days, the subsistence allowance shall for such period be equal to three-fourths of such basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances:

Provided that where such enquiry is prolonged beyond a period of ninety days for reasons directly attributable to the workman, the subsistence allowance shall, for the period exceeding ninety days, be reduced to one-fourth of such basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances.

(ii) Where the enquiry is by an outside agency or, as the case may be, where criminal proceedings against the workman are under investigation or trial the subsistence allowance shall, for the first one hundred and eighty days from the date of suspension, be equal to one-half of his basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances to which the workman would have been entitled to if he were on leave. If such enquiry or criminal proceedings gets prolonged and the workman continues to be under suspension for a period exceeding one hundred and eighty days, the subsistence allowance shall for such period be equal to three-fourths of such wages:

Provided that where such enquiry or criminal proceedings is prolonged beyond a period of one hundred and eighty days for reasons directly attributable to the workman, the subsistence allowance shall, for the period exceeding one hundred and eighty days, be reduced to one-fourth of such wages.

(c) If on the conclusion of the enquiry or, as the case may be, of the criminal proceedings, the workman has been found guilty of the charges framed against him and it is considered, after giving the workman concerned a reasonable opportunity of making representation on the penalty proposed, that an order of dismissal or suspension or fine or stoppage of annual increment or reduction in rank would meet the ends of justice, the employer shall pass an order accordingly:

Provided that when an order of dismissal is passed under this clause, the workman shall be deemed to have been absent from duty during the period of suspension and shall not be entitled to any remuneration for such period, and the subsistence allowance already paid to him shall not be recovered:

Provided further that where the period between the date on which the workman was suspended from duty pending the inquiry or investigation or trial and the date on which an order of suspension was passed under this clause exceeds four days, the workman shall be deemed to have been suspended only for four days or for such shorter period as is specified in the said order of suspension and for the remaining period he shall be entitled to the same wages as he would have received if he had not been placed under suspension, after deducting the subsistence allowance paid to him for such period:

Provided also that where an order imposing fine or stoppage of annual increment or reduction in rank is passed under this clause, the workman shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension and shall be entitled to the same wages as he would have received if he had not been placed under suspension, after deducting the subsistence allowance paid to him for such period:

Provided also that in the case of a workman to whom the provision of clause (2) of Article 311 of the Constitution apply, the provisions of that Article shall be complied with.

(d) If on the conclusion of the inquiry, or as the case may be, of the criminal proceedings, the workman has been found to be not guilty of any of the charges framed against him, he shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension and shall be entitled to the same wages as he would have received if he had not been placed under suspension, after deducting the subsistence allowance paid to him for such period.

(e) The payment of subsistence allowance under this standing order shall be subject to the workman concerned not taking up any employment during the period of suspension.

(5) In awarding punishment under this standing order, the Manager shall take into account any gravity of the misconduct, the previous record, if any, of the workman and any other extenuating or aggravating circumstances, that may exist. A copy of the order passed by the Manager shall be supplied to the workman concerned.

17. Complaints.—All complaints arising out of employment including those relating to unfair treatment or wrongfull exaction on the part of the employer or his agent, shall be submitted to the Manager or other person specified in this behalf with the right of appeal to the employer.

18. Certificate on termination of service.—Every permanent workman shall be entitled to a service certificate at the time of his dismissal, discharge or retirement from service.

19. Liability of Manager.—The Manager of the establishment shall personally be held responsible for the proper and faithful observance of the standing orders.

20. (1) Any person desiring to prefer an appeal in pursuance of sub-section (1) of section 6 of the Act shall draw up a memorandum of appeal setting out the grounds of appeal and forward it in quintuplicate to the appellate authority accompanied by a certified copy of the Standing Orders, amendments or modifications, as the case may be.

(2) The appellate authority shall, after giving the appellant an opportunity of being heard, confirm the standing orders, amendments or modifications as certified by the certifying officer unless it considers that there are reason for giving the other parties to the proceedings a hearing before a final decision is made in the appeal.

(3) Where the appellate authority does not confirm the standing orders, amendments or modification it shall fix a date for the hearing of the appeal and direct notice thereof to be given:—

(a) where the appeal is filed by the employer or a workman to trade unions of the workmen of the industrial establishments, and where there are no such trade unions to the representatives of workmen elected under clause (b) of rule 6, or as the case may be to the employer;

(b) where the appeal is filed by a trade union to the employer and all other trade unions of the workmen of the industrial establishment;

(c) where the appeal is filed by the representative of the workmen, to the employer and any other workman whom the appellate authority joins as a party to the appeal.

(4) The appellant shall furnish each of the respondents with a copy of the memorandum of appeal.

(5) The appellate authority may at any stage call for any evidence it considers necessary for the disposal of the appeal.

(6) On the date fixed, under sub-rule (3) for the hearing of the appeal, the appellate authority shall take such evidence as it may have called for or consider to be relevant.

21. Exhibition of standing orders.—A copy of these orders in English and in Hindi shall be posted at the Manager's office and on a notice board maintained at or near the main entrance to the establishment and shall be kept in a legible condition.
